

Please carefully consider satellite radio. As a person that travels a great deal in my auto, satellite radio has kept me connected to news, music and traffic conditions where local stations are still out of reach. I cannot believe that our government would consider moving us backwards because it is so superior to what exists. I am glad that we can have discussions but let's not move backwards because something works so well.